The essence of Portugal

Porto is a cosmopolitan city, an eclectic mix of all things ancient and modern. A UNESCO World Heritage site teeming with medieval townhouses, gothic palaces and baroque churches adorned with exquisitely handcrafted “Azulejos” tiles.

It also boasts some of Europe’s most talked about contemporary architecture - including the Rem Koolhaas designed Casa da Musica, and the many architectural triumphs of award-winning Portonatives Eduardo Souto de Moura and Alvaro Siza, such as The Serralves Museum of Contemporary Art.

DON'T MISS

The Casa da Musica, the Historical Centre and the Ribeira Square, the Lello Bookshop, the Café Majestic, the Port Wine Cellars and the Monastery of Nossa Senhora do Pilar, the Guindais Funicular, Miguel Bombarda Street, Galeria de Paris Street, Cândido dos Reis Street, Serralves House, and Museum of Modern Art, the São Bento Train station, the Cathedral, the Clérigos Tower. And, of course, the contagious joy of the popular festivities, the excellent gastronomy and the wine.
